Prayer for Peace

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.
Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;
To be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
It is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Weekly News Round-up

The school is slightly quieter this morning as rehearsals are over for this year's nativity play –Hey Ewe. The children performed brilliantly all week and were a real credit to all involved. They managed to keep any bugs at bay so they could sing their little hearts out and say their lines loud and proud! I hope all those who were able to attend enjoyed themselves and it bought a smile to your face, I am certainly very proud of them.

On the last day of term is our Christmas Carol service at the church. It will last about 40 mins and will include carols, readings, poems and songs sung by the choir. You are all welcome to come and join us in this special celebration. The service starts at 2.00pm and afterwards you will be able to take your child home directly from church. If you are not able to make it and would like your child to be taken back to school by bus please let your class teacher know and they will compile a list. I look forward to seeing many of you there. Finally just a reminder that there are no clubs next week—have a wonderful weekend.
